

Workplace Sensitivity Training – by Proven Training Solutions

Has your workplace become a bit “too casual”? Maintaining the balance between friendliness and professionalism amongst your staff members can be a difficult task. While on one hand it is beneficial to nurture teamwork and comradeship between co-workers, on the other you want to maintain respect and order within your place of business. Occasionally, when staff members have worked together for a period time they can begin to interact with each other a bit too indifferently. This may lead to new concerns about respect and sensitivity in the workplace emerging.

When this occurs, it may be a good idea to run a sensitivity refresher course for your staff. Going through a curriculum that covers the basics of workplace diversity, respect, and sensitivity is a great way to remind your employees about behaviors that may be considered inappropriate in the work environment. It is also a good opportunity to cultivate discussion and raise awareness about what expected from your employees on a day-to-day basis. The Proven Training Solutions, Sensitivity Training Course is ideal for helping managers lead the discussion and constructively educate employees about the importance of respecting one another and professional conduct.

Why Sensitivity Training is Important
